MURIEL AT 16 YEARS OF AGE

ROBERT'S DAUGHTER MURIEL, HIS WIFE EDITH AND HIS SISTER IN LAW ANNIE ON A DAY OUT AT THE BEACH

Meanwhile, whilst Muriel was growing up Robert was not to know that his future son in law William had also been born in 1907 and was growing up just along The High Street.

Here is William (sitting on the right wearing his Eaton collar at the High Street Parish Church wedding of his step brother. William was seven and war was on the brink.

One girl on this photograph went on to be a famous local florist and provided flowers for both Robert's granddaughters at their weddings at The Vane Arms High Street Stockton in the 1960's

So many faces, with still so many individual untold stories from the High Street waiting to be told!.....

Stockton Parish Church and garden of vicarage

Here is William's mother in the front row kneeling on the carpet holding one of her boys and the other, with the Eaton collar, next to her. The Group is of the Mother's Union. It was taken in the Parish Church vicarage garden at the back of the High Street at the beginning of WW1.

And it is here, along the High Street from the Town Hall at the Parish Church, that we end our brief encounter with our "Stories from the High Street" featuring Robert Nicholson and his family.....
