Introductory.

To Mr. C. W. Bond the Association owes a special debt of thanks on his accepting for another year the burden of the presidential office as something additional to the already onerous list of honorable and honorary duties his fellow citizens expect him to perform. In acceding to the unanimous wish of the committee and members he is doing us an honour for which we are very grateful.

On Thursday, October 30th, Mr. W. R. Ball said farewell to the School after a period of nearly forty years' service on the staff as Mathematical Master, the last to retire of the original body of masters and mistresses which assembled at the opening of the School on a morning of January in 1896. The occasion was marked by two little ceremonies in which first the Staff and later the boys paid their affectionate tribute to one whom they have grown to value highly and esteem deeply. On behalf of the Staff the presentation was made by the Headmaster, supported by Mr. Baker, Gedling acting similarly on behalf of the boys.

The Old Boys' presentation to Mr. Ball is to take place on the occasion of the Annual Dinner, when we confidently anticipate that a rare crowd of Old Boys will assemble in the Metropole to receive Mr. Ball into the sacred circle of real Old Boys, and to wish him and Mrs. Ball many years of happiness and peace.

Mr. Ball's place on the Staff as Deputy Headmaster is being taken by Mr. Baker; and to us, from Spennymoor, comes Mr. A. Barraclough, B.Sc., of Leeds University. with honours in mathematics, to fill the vacancy on the Mathematical Staff. To Mr. Barraclough we extend a warm greeting.

For once we may be pardoned perhaps for making some reference to examination results. Never before has the School presented so large a number of candidates for the School Certificate, namely 66. Of these 57 passed, 26 achieving matriculation; remarkable figures when we remember that ours is a School of less than 330 boys. The higher candidates were no less successful, securing among them one State Scholarship, no less than six County Exhibitions of £80 (the highest number given to any one School), and seven University Scholarships.

It is with very deep regret that we have to announce the very serious illness of four of our members. For many weary months have H. A. Waistell, G. Winspear and M. H. Jones been laid aside, and now we learn, too, of the dangerous illness of C. C. Morris, To all of them we would like to express our deep sympathy and the hope that the time may not be long distant when they will be restored to health and strength.

PLEASE RESERVE THE FOLLOWING DATES.

- Poor Children's Treat, in the School, Friday, Dec. 20th, at 5-30.
- Annual Dinner and Presentation to Mr. Ball, in the Hotel Metropole, Friday, January 3rd, at 7-30. Price 3/6.
- Dance in the Maison de Danse (Jack Marwood and his Orchestra), Thursday, Jan. 23rd. Price 2/6.

School Sports.

The Sports were held on the Grangefield ground on June 21st 1935, in glorious weather.

This year the programme was altered again in the direction of giving opportunities for boys to take up definite events from the earliest stage of their school career to the standard of the inter-school sports. Thus a boy can enter for the under 13 events and continue through the junior class to senior standing, and have something to train for and to aim at each year; and also competition to give experience and a measure of his progress. Unfortunately our plan is, to a considerable extent, spoilt because young seniors will not enter for events where they see no possibility of victory. This policy leads often to these boys giving up the sports altogether when they cease to be juniors, and this is a main cause why our performances in the inter-school sports are not so good as they should be and might be. Incidentally this attitude is treason to the very spirit of sportsmanship.

This year's sports were quite as interesting as usual. The senior long jump is a fairly recent event, and J. Sharkey duly increased the record. C. Kendall did very well to break three junior records, including the 220 yards and the junior quarter-mile, both of which have stood since 1923.

It certainly seems that the number of friends and spectators is smaller than it used to be. This is surprising for the racing is always interesting, the field is delightful and the tea is satisfying; in fact the Cricket Field on our Sports Day is the very place to spend a happy afternoon,

The Mayoress (Mrs. W. Newton) presented the Cups, Prizes and Medals at the conclusion of the sports.

Inter-School Sports.

The sports were held at Darlington, on Friday, June 28th. The beauty of the evening did little to cheer our depressed spirits. Detailed comment is unnecessary; the list below will unfold its own sad tale.

The moral seems pretty obvious; in any case it is printed—for those unable to draw it for themselves—in the account of the school sports. The inter-school sports are due to take place at Stockton in 1936 and, for our credit's sake, it is profoundly to be hoped that our athletes will endeavour to produce more cheering results.

School Cross Country, 1934.

The annual race was run at the end of the Autumn Term over a 3½ mile course. Church ran well to win the cup for the Brown House, while Gedling also finished strongly just behind. A long straggling "tail" was evidence of lack of training. The House placings were:—1, Brown; 2, Green; 3, Red; 4, Blue.

Inter-School Cross Country, 1934.

This race, which takes place annually in March, was run this year over the Coatham course. The School team again ran well and finished second, as last year. Church, who ran strongly to finish third in the field, might with a little more luck, have been even better placed. Placings and points:—1, Coatham, 114: 2, Stockton, 126; 3, Newcastle, 133; 4, Darlington, 231; 5, Middlesbrough, 281.

Annual Swimming Sports,

October 21st, 1935.

In view of the number of records broken last year we did not expect anything startling in the way of results. Even so we were able to claim three new records. Samuel accounted for the length, under 14, and the junior length, while Urwin set up a new time in the length backstroke. The most exciting event of all was the House Relay Race, where Urwin, swimming last, made up an almost impossible leeway to win by a touch.

Rugby, 1934-35.

Although the year has not been marked by any outstanding success nevertheless progress has been made in the creation of a Rugby atmosphere and the gradual acquisition of technique in the school.

The results, though not gratifying to the eye are a little improvement on last year's, but great achievements will never be registered until the inferiority complex of the school is dispersed.

Of the matches little is to be said except to hope for an improvement from the more Rugby-minded boys now coming on. At present there are too many whose interest amounts to a half-hearted attempt at chasing the ball on field days.

The School Fifteen failed as a scoring machine; the forwards as a rule worked well together but there was a marked lack of co-operation between them and the backs who, though earnest were individuals only, lacking co-ordination of movement. The usual XV was:—Jones, A., Turner, L. W., (vice-captain), Coates, H., Carling, R. P., Hill, A., Church, E., Gale, L., Ireland, R., Race, B., Andrew, L. B., Callender, M. H., Place, R., Gleave, J. T., Lewis, W., Sharkey, J. (capt.). A second XV was run with some success.

Rugger House Matches.

In the Senior matches the House Cup was won by Brown House, who went through unbeaten, winning two of the three matches and drawing the third. The Junior Competition, which was very keen throughout, was won by Blue House. Cricket.

Matches were played on the knock-out system owing to a very short summer term. Brown House was victorious by winning their two matches against Red and Green.

Cricket, 1935.

The season proved a thoroughly enjoyable and not an entirely unsuccessful one even though we could only claim one victory, namely, over Stockton Grammar School, whom we defeated by eight wickets. The team on the whole was keen; and the fielding distinctly better than in 1934. There was a dearth of good bowlers, the attack resting chiefly on the shoulders of Robinson, Sharkey and Turner. The best batsmen were Kelly, Nicholson, Byers, Coates and C. Hill, and Gale was a keen wicketkeeper.

The team was usually selected from the above named players and Race, Dixon, Steward and Gillespie.

Chess.

This year there were eleven entrants for the tournament for the "A. W. Welch" Chess Shield and the standard of play was distinctly higher than on previous occasions. The competition was won for the third time by R. Gedling, but not without considerable opposition from S. Metcalfe, J. Sharkey, A. Swinburne, M. Callender, and J. Beaumont, whilst the efforts of the younger players, notably W Dixon, promise well for the future of the game in the school.

For the first time our activities were not confined to the annual tournament: on two occasions we opposed Middlesbrough High School, and, although beaten twice by our more experienced opponents, we gave a good account of ourselves, so that, if our present improvement is maintained, we shall have no difficulty in returning victorious from the next of what is hoped will be a regular series of inter-school matches.

Literary and Historical Society. Session 1934-35.

We have had another very successful session. The standard of debating has been at least as high as usual, and there has been an accession of enthusiasm among the younger members which augers well for the future. The House Debating Competition ended in a draw. In the "replay," the Green House vanquished the Blue, and thus won the shield which had for three years been held by the Red House.

Besides the House debates we held four other debates—for the Fourth forms, with the Girl's School, with the Grammar School, and with the Old Boys. We debated such varied subjects as: "That Rugby Football is the best winter game," "That the woman's place is in the home," "That the school-leaving age should be raised to sixteen years," "That this House regrets the discovery of America." We especially enjoyed the visit of the Old Boys, Messrs. Livingston and Wynzar.

We were very ably represented in the Spark Cup Debate by Messrs. Gedling and Gleave. Of the six competing teams which debated the motion, "That War is the Mother of the Arts and Virtues," we were placed second.

Our lecturers this session have been :-

28 Sept. Rev. H. B. Rattenbury-" China To-day."

Lord Thurlow-" North and South America." 26 Oct.

9 Nov. Mr. A. Swinburne-" London."

16 Nov. Mr. E. Tinsley-" The Cuban War." Mr. Hannah-" The growth of the Ship." 7 Dec.

Rev. H. G. Williams-" Sea Birds." 1 Feb. Mr. Maccoby—" Mediaeval Manuscripts." Mr. Nicholson—" Tropical Birds." 15 Mar.

We thank these gentlemen for eight very interesting evenings.

The Headmaster's Prize was divided between Messrs. Gedling and Gleave for speeches on "Liberty" and "Mass Production." At the Hat-Night held at the opening of the session, Messrs. Gleave and Dobby achieved honorary membership of the society. Mr. Dobby won the prize at the magazine night for a thrilling yarn of African life, "The Leopard Man."

Lastly, the Party. We played ping-pong, we played whist, we acted charades, we "competed," and above all we ate amply. It was a most successful evening.

School Music.

Perhaps the most cheering thing about the music of the school during the past year has been that the attendances at the Wednesday music have been larger and more regular than for the preceding year or two. It has been rather more like old times to see a faithful and compact band (still not so large as it should be, by the way) in their places and obviously keen week by week.

Among the memories that remain of these Wednesdays are the visits from Dr. A. Hare, Headmaster of Darlington Grammar School, and our old friend, Mr. J. M. Jones, B. Sc., Headmaster of Houghton-le-Spring School, who sang to us songs of Schubert, Schumann, Brahms, Ireland, Quilter and others; four trio evenings when we had music by Tschaikowsky. Cesar Franck, Rebikov, Sibelius and Lachner; a programme of violin and piano music and another of 'cello and piano music; and a string quintet-whose playing of the Larghetto from Beethoven's Second Symphony was outstanding. We offer our cordial thanks to Dr. Hare and Mr. Jones to Mr. H. Spotiswoode and Mr. L. Knox, and to Mr. and Mrs. H. Russell for their kindness in ministering to our pleasure and musical advancement.

In thanking very specially Mr. Knox and Mr. Spottiswoode, who have placed their exceptional talent freely and cordially at our disposal for several years we have to record, with very deep regret, that professional duties, which are taking both of them away from Stockton for the greater part of their time, will make it practically impossible to continue a kindness which we assure them has been most sincerely appreciated.

The House Competitions were held as usual last December, and the highest marks were gained by the Blue House. The standard of performance—in the instrumental items at all events—was this year perhaps rather lower than usual, and we should like to see House representatives prepare very carefully and seriously for this competition. As before we owe our warmest thanks to Mr. Kay, who chose the music and judged the performances. Mr. Kay's words of criticism are very valuable for those who are wise enough to profit by them.

The most encouraging feature of the work of the orchestra is the excellent promise shown by several of the youthful newcomers. At the Speech Day the programme contained a suite arranged from Purcell's music to the play, "The Virtuous Wife," "Les Moissoneurs" by Couperin, and a very fine Triumphal March by Carl Reinecke. We would again urge all parents who can do so to allow their boys to learn an orchestral instrument which will add enormously to their interest and pleasure in life in years to come. The violin is not the only possible instrument to take up. Anyone who had learnt and persevered with the 'cello, the violin, or a wind instrument would be sure of a welcome in good orchestras in the future and would realise the highest delight of musical education—the ability to make music for oneself.

Continental Journey.

A party from the school, two masters, relations and friends spent a week of the summer holidays in a visit to the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. On the outward journey it was possible to see some of the sights of London; Buckingham Palace, Hyde Park, the Houses of Parliament, Downing Street and Trafalgar Square were visited and the travellers were enabled to get their bearings in this part of London.

The week in Luxembourg was spent in long walks in the woods and peaceful rural valleys around the village of Steinfurt. A visit was also paid to the city of Luxembourg. The main impression of this part of the journey seems to be that the walking induced tremendous appetites; more than one member of the party distinguished himself by the quantity of excellent food which he was able to consume at the evening meal.

On the return journey a visit was paid to the international exhibition at Brussels. Although the hotel at Brussels was not comfortable, many enjoyed this part of the journey best of all. Altogether it was a splendid holiday and the members of the party wish to take this opportunity of thanking M. Adolphe Bellot, of Steinfort, for his kindness in arranging excursions, M. and Mme. Kipgen for the excellent food they provided and Dr. Maccoby for showing them round London.

On the 27th and 28th February a party numbering about eleven of the sixth form, maintaining a custom of the last few years, visited the British Industries Fair at Olympia.

On the 23rd February, at the Middlesbrough High School a party of boys composed of Coates, Nicholson, Archer, Gardner, and D. Smith presented a scene from "Le Capitaine Tic," as our contribution to the competition organised by the Tees-side branch of the Modern Language Association for one act French plays.

On the 5th March, the school was visited again by Mr. Norman Williams and his company of Shakespearian players who performed for us on this occasion a practically complete version of Henry V.

Speech Day.

The School Speech Day took place on 14th December, 1934, in the Jubilee Hall, when the Mayor, Alderman W. Newton, who is also Chairman of the Governors, presided. He was supported by a large platform party including the chief speaker, Professor J. H. Nicholson, then Head of the Department of Education, Armstrong College and now Principal of Hull University College.

The proceedings followed the usual lines, and probably the items most enjoyed by the big audience were the songs rendered by Mr. Kay's choir and the performance of the School Orchestra.

The Headmaster's report dealt chiefly with the activities of the previous session and the Examination results, which are in detail on another page. The high standard reached in the Examinations must be, he said, a source of just pride, not only to the successful candidates, but also to the Masters. He added, however, that the boys also had a duty towards the school, and that he was semewhat perturbed by the number of boys who seemed prepared to take as much as was offered them and to give little or nothing in return. The regular turning out for Football and Cricket Matches, eagerness to take part in such functions as Sports, Society Meetings, and so on, were cases in point. A greater readiness on the part of some boys to do something for the School and its traditions would be, he said, most welcome.

Professor Nicholson said he had rarely attended a Prize Meeting which had a more likely set of lads than we had there. We had a bright set of lads with a grip—as he had just evidenced. If they had as good a grip on their studies as they had had on him, there was a future for them.

Only three speeches are usually given on such occasions; "The Torch of Life," "When I was a Boy" and "Why I never won a Prize," and as he had no intention of speaking on any of those subjects he would have to strike out on his own. The older boys would realise better than the younger ones what a very different world it was to-day from when he went to school. It is a world of great possibilities and great dangers. Doors are open to boys which were not open to him when he left school. It is a world which is open to those who have the courage to make what can be made of it; a world whose future lies more in the hands of the young than the old.

The older boys might remember a world when there was no wireless, but the younger boys could hardly do so. He saw a Frenchman fly from Manchester to Brooklands and back and it took three days. We could now fly from England to Australia in three days—all this has been achieved in twentyfive years. The world is moving at a terrific rate and it is hard for some of us to keep up with it.

One change which he disliked exists over half Europe to-day self Government—on which we pride ourselves here, has gone and the world was governed by dictators. He was brought up to believe that you can measure the progress of a people in civilisation by the extent to which they can govern themselves. He still believed that this step toward Dictatorship was a step backwards. We in this country believe that men and women should make up their own minds. Men and women have suffered for what we call freedom of thought—the right to worship, the right to govern their own lives. If we ever lose the power to make up our own minds, the power to govern ourselves—we shall lose our freedom.

He wished to say how delighted he was with two features of the Headmaster's report; first the great record of success, upon which the Headmaster and staff were to be congratulated. The second feature was in its frankness. On occasions like this, when the proceedings get into newspapers, the Headmaster usually limits the report to the pleasant side of school life. Dr. Kinnes had not only referred to things which pleased him, but also had the courage to refer to one feature of school life with which he was not so pleased. He liked the spirit of frankness in which his remarks were made.

He could tell merely from looking at the boys here—and from shaking hands with them—that they had very fine material in this school. He could tell that they were being trained to make use of their learning.

It is not so easy as it was to know what to teach. There was a time when the world stayed as it was from year to year, but those days are over. The world has changed rapidly and if boys expect to learn the answer to questions that have not yet been asked, their elders cannot tell them. They do not know what questions will be asked to-morrow. This is the problem of education to-day; to-day's questions are different trom yesterday's questions. Certain questions they can answer.

He hoped they could help them to grow up into the kind of men who would be willing to take responsibility for themselves. He wanted them also to acquire judgment—that would be needed; power to face a situation and to examine it impartially without taking into account its bearing on oneself. Our country has risen to greatness through men and women who have had that courage.

OLD BOYS' REPORTS.

On the 11th November, our President Mr. C. W. Bond once more represented the Association at the Armistice Day Service at school and laid on the War Memorial the Old Boy's wreath.

Dances.

Two dances were held this year, both of course leaving nothing to be desired as Social Functions and happy gatherings. As usual, the weather proved most unfriendly especially for the Supper Dance on October 25th, on which we were unlucky enough to lose money. Sympathetic criticism attributed this circumstance to the fact that we gave too much for the money; it might have added that the turn out of patrons was disappointingly meagre-in spite of a trinity of attractions elsewhere on that The dance on January 24th served to brush away the deficit attending the more ambitious venture. On both occasions our thanks were especially owing to a genius among our Old Boys who secured, by a secret magic we should like to be acquainted with, a rare collection of floral decorations and shrubs, with soil and what nots attached. Several tradesmen in the town helped us generously by disfiguring their premises with our announcement; and Mrs. Bond put the final touch of charm and grace to the evening by presenting the prizes. To all the above, to the hard-working sellers of tickets and to those who bought them we owe our best thanks. May we ask for special effort from all who dance to make the evening of Thursday, January 23rd, 1936 a specially memorable one?

Poor Children's Treat.

The treat of December 29th, was ne'er a whit less of a robust jolification than in times past. As usual the decorators had put in many hours bright work translating bright ideas into a radiant actuality that transformed all that is formal and chill in the aspect of Assembly Hall and gymnasium. Many willing hands were kept usefully employed replenishing cups with tea and plates with plenty and as usual there was little left at the end with which to entertain the birds. On the later evening boisterousness prevailed even more heartily and vociferously than we have grown so used to knowing it—largely as a result of the connivance and wilful incentive of a very large and very spirited band of older youngsters, drawn from our own young spirited band of older youngsters, drawn from our own young spirited numbers. To all the many Old Boys' to whom credit is due for the success of this fine evening the Committee wish to express their gratitud. From all points of view the finest function and happiest gathering of the year.

The Seventeenth Annual Dinner.

At night on Thursday, the 27th of December, 1934 some 55 persons of quality gathered at the Metropole Hotel and ate dinner. No scribe who was not also a Pharisee would fail to mention that the food was excellent and the drinks handy.

Throughout the evening Messrs. McGann, Irwin, and Wallett accompanied by a master of the arpeggio sang lustily of Council

Houses, Nirvana, the Oxford Manner and kindred subjects. Their efforts were keenly appreciated by all present. The rest of us also sang.

After the toast of the King Mr. William Stainsby rose to propose the toast of the Old School. He spoke with feeling of Runner Beans, Bloodstained Batons, Martin Luther, Shandon Bells and the restitution of Congenial Nights. Every topic was dealt with justly and with precision. Only once did he puzzle us. It was when he described an unnamed master as a rosetinted scepticle. The talents which made Mr. Stainsby the ideal conspirator at school have in no way diminished, and the modest words with which he ended his speech were in our opinion most misplaced.

Dr. Kinnes, in replying to the toast of the School, first complained that he lacked matter, and then proceeded to give us a whole budget of news. He hoped that by May work on the new school would have begun. Plans have been approved by the Board of Education, and they are even more palatial than we had hoped. He added that we still need a pavilion, and hinted darkly at Bazaars. He spoke with pride of the list of Old Boys' successes and concluded with an appeal for more and more detailed information from Old Boys' about themselves and their distinctions.

The President Mr. C. W. Bond proposed our Guests in a speech both brief and personal. He told us that Mr. Cress Tarn was a solicitor who reached us by way of Darlington and Cambridge, that he had a funny name, and was in some un-explained way connected with a Miss West. Then with a flourish of practical metaphor he introduced our second guest, Mr. Robert Roger.

Mr. Roger "said a few words." He told us the sad story of a parent who, on seeing our Governors for the first time "got the shock of his life." The moral was that we should look to our personal appearance. It is hard to reproduce the substance of Mr. Roger's speech, but the spirit was, as ever, compact of wisdom and of gentleness.

Mr. Cress Tarn who had been reading back numbers of the Stocktonian claimed to have been reared on carbolic soup and suggested that it must also have been the diet of a certain skeleton—who shall be nameless. He discussed Women and the Broadening effect of the years and purred as he went with fearsome facility. Finally becoming serious he assured us that brains were not everything and that Character was much to be preferred to Intellect. He made an excellent speech.

The evening ended pleasantly as it began with song.

There were present: Ald. C. W. Allison, J.P., Messrs. I. W. Atkinson, E. Baldwin, F. W. Baker, W. Baker, W. R. Ball, L. Bell, M. Bellairs, C. W. Bond, T. B. Brooke, T. H. Bulmer, K. Clark, W. H. Coates, C. Demain, R. Elsworth, J. B. Evans, R. Fenwick, E. H. Fieke, N. E. Green, H. Griffen, R. Hallam, A. J. Henderson, J. J. Henderson, C. W. King, Dr. J. R. Kinnes, J. R. Lambert, F. Laws, G. W. Little, D. Livingston, C. Moore, W. H. Morrow, H. Nicholson, H. J. Pickles, J. H. Ragsdale, R. Roger (Guest), G. A. Rowe, J. H. Sharp, D. Shepherd, A. E. Shields, G. Claxton Smith, W. H. Stainsby, W. Stubbs, G. H. Swinburne, Cress Tarn (Guest), R. E. B. Williams, A. W. Walton. Williams, A. W. Walton.

Old Stocktonians' Benevolent Fund.

During the past year, few calls have been made on the above Fund. This, combined with the fact that in one or two cases Old Boys have found themselves in a position to begin repaying their loans, has not only enabled the Trustees themselves to repay all monies lent to the Fund, but has also led to a substantial increase in the "Balance at the Bank" (now about £47).

One pleasing incident must be narrated. Some long time ago a well known member of the Old Stocktonians' Association (we don't think that he would like us to mention his name), quite voluntarily and entirely without any persuasion on our part, lent £20 to the Fund. with the expressed wish that it should be used to help an Old Boy of his acquaintance who was then in somewhat serious difficulties. The years have slipped by and that Old Stocktonian has never asked for the return of his money nor to our knowledge has anyone except ourselves been aware that he made the loan.

To make the story as brief as possible—one day last month we sent him a cheque in repayment with a sincere expression of thanks; the next day it was returned with an intimation that, as we had had it so long, we might as well keep it. So the Benevolent Fund has benefited, an Old Boy has been given a good start in life, and the hero of the story, except for a small item in our Minute Book, remains as he was before-quite unknown.

We don't wish to point any moral. All that we intend to say is that the Benevolent Fund works quietly and without advertisement. that the only reason for its existence is to help Old Boys, and that the help which it is able to give is restricted only by the amount of money at its disposal.

Christmas time is again upon us, and the usual appeal for the Poor Children's Treat will soon be in your hands. In making your subscription, do not hesitate to add a trifle for the Old Boys Benevolent Fund for it is by such help that the Fund is able to extend a helping hand to those situated less fortunately than yourself,

Old Boys Here and There.

- J. P. Green, now located with the luminaries of the law in Sergeants' Inn, The Temple, is displaying a fine instinct for locating parties of Stocktonians at sea in the Great City.
- G. Beard distinguished himself by coming in tenth in the "Northern Echo" swim, from Victoria Bridge to the Transporter. Congratulations!

N. R. R. Dodds has joined the Metropolitan Police after shining as centre forward last season for Bishop Auckland and becoming possessor of an English F.A. Amateur Cup medal. Before leaving these parts he looked in at Witton Park to win the foot handicap. Sporting papers wrote enthusiastically about his good time in the heat and tie. Further developments keenly anticipated.

John Williams finds Norwich much more salubrious than Wigan.

- E. J. Eatty writes cheerily from Chicago (Ill.). He maintains that Chicago isn't as bad as you think—which is perhaps as well.
- D. J. Baird, of Rochester (New York State), has been visiting him there. David is a man of ideas and turns easily from thoughts of love to schemes of life insurance, and leaves that to organise his plan for getting Old Stocktonians in the States in touch with one another, Leslie Hill, down in Surrey. is telling people—who don't believe him—that he will not hurt them. Little daughter Monica is making excellent progress.

- E. Mackenzie-Taylor, head of the irrigation service of the Punjab, has been over in England this summer.
- H. Stephenson has been elected President of the Hull University College Dramatic Society and is to be responsible for a considerable stir in Hull City near Christmastide.
- J. W. L. Gale, in his first term, has established himself as fly half in the Hull University College 2nd Fifteen—and is very effectively throwing his weight about.

The lighter side of Hull College life and its Cercle Francais seem to be deriving inspiration and incentive from the liveliness of Wadsworth.

- E. H. Fieke, on the Gold Coast, finds that English is such a universal language that he has not yet mastered sufficient of it to make life easy in that busy corner of the world. If he live small he expects to succeed.
- D. H. Lee writes frequently and happily from Kelham College, Newark, where they seem to believe in muscular Christianity.

To both the Rev. W. Suthern and the Rev. A. C. Wilson has fallen, in the course of the year, the duty of officiating at the wedding of a brother.

The Rev. S. Britton has written flatteringly about the old School from Jarrow, where he took part recently in the service commemorating the 1000th anniversary of the founding of the Parish Church there. A service which was broadcast.

R. S. Breckon finds that the remote city of Bath is not so far in the west as to protect him from the friendly advances of certain Association officials, and expects to take his very proper revenge on the occasion of the Kids' Treat. A well known Old Boy acted as Editor of the "Rag" Magazine of the Armstrong Medical Colleges, Newcastle-on-Tyne. We should have liked to have been present at his many interviews with the Chief of Police.

We understand that as a result of the latest Municipal Election, a suggestion was made to throw Old Boy Allison off the Aldermanic bench. Better counsels, however, prevailed, and Alderman Allison remains to chasten us with his wit and to entertain us with his philosophy.

We lately received a photograph of the baby of Mr. J. F. Guile. We are pleased to record that the offspring takes after its mother.

How time flies! A year or so ago, Sidney Callender was breaking all records in the "detention" line. Now he is the proud parent of twins whose arrival has caused the Transport Authorities to run special buses between Bishopton and Kirby in Cleveland.

Old Stocktonian processions to Thirlwell's, frequently but consistently nuptial in character, continue with unabated vigour.

In Memoriam.

To many of the younger Old Boys, the name of Mr. H. W. L. CALVERT, who passed away quite recently, will have little significance, for his days with us date back to the almost forgotten period of the Higher Grade School.

By his contemporaries, however, he will be well remembered for his pleasant wit and his good comradeship. Of him, it can truly be said that he never made an enemy, and that he sweetened the lives of many others by his inherent courtesy and kindly thoughts.

"Lumley," as he was affectionately called, in his life played many parts. He was an elocutionist of distinction, a scholar of taste, and a collector of discrimination.

All good causes had his sympathy and support, and no Old Boy was more sincerely attached to the school of his youth or took more pride in its progress and achievements.

He was one of those many who have found a wife among the Old Girls of the school. To her in her grief and sorrow, we send our sympathy and consolations.

As we go to press we learn with deep regret of the death of Captain Harry Lennard, of Eagleschiffe.

Captain Lennard's ship, the Silverhazel, was wrecked on an outlying island of the Phillipines and the passengers and crew to the number of some fifty were marconed on what was a mere wave-swept rock no more than 20 square feet in size. The seas remained too high for rescuing ships to approach the island, so at last it was decided to venture to sea on rafts made of fragments of the wreck. True to the splendid British seatradition that the Captain must think of his own safety last, Captain Lennard had waited till all the others had left the wreckage and the island, and then—having previously given his life-belt to one of his men—he jumped into the waves, only to be beaten back from the raft and drowned, one of four only who perished.

We remember Harry Lennard as a fair-haired solidlybuilt lad, quiet and almost shy in manner, but giving the impression of reserve ability and strength of character. He early made his mark in his profession, and was one of the youngest of the captains sailing the Pacific, being only 34 at the time of his death.

To his brother and sisters—Old Stocktonians themselves—and to his sorrowing parents we tender our sincerest sympathy in the untimely end of a career so brilliant already in early achievement, so full of promise for the future.

LIST OF MEMBERS.

Members are requested to inform the Secretary of any change of address as soon as possible.

News of promotions and distinctions, success in examinations or in sport, personal items, etc., will be welcomed,

Efforts to get into communication with members whose names are given without addresses have fuiled. The Committee would welcome definite information about them.

RULES.

Old Stocktonians' Association.

Revised October, 1929.

1.—The name of the Association shall be the "Old-Stocktonians"

The "Old Stocktonians" aims at continuing friendships and preserving that spirit of comradeship which ought to exist among those who have been educated at the same school. These aims are to be achieved by means of social, recreative, and educational pursuits.

2.—The Association shall be open to the Old Boys of the Stockton Secondary School and of the late Higher Grade School. Past and present members of the staff are also eligible.

3.—The government of the Association shall be vested in three Presidents, six Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, two Secretaries and a Committee of sixteen, together with the Secretary of each sub-section.

(a) The present and retired headmasters shall be Presidents ex-officio.

The third shall be elected annually.

(b) All the other officials shall be elected annually.

(c) A member holding any office shall be eligible for re-election in the following year, in the same or any capacity.

(d) In Committee seven shall form a quorum.

(e) The Committee shall have power to co-opt any member or members at their discretion for the time being for any particular purpose.

4.—The Committee shall have power to refuse membership to any applicant for admission or to ask any member to resign (after investigation by the Committee and confirmation by a general meeting), whose conduct they consider such as to militate against the welfare of the Association.

5.—Each Section shall be self-governing and self-supporting. The Committee, however, shall have power to grant financial aid to any section.

Each Section shall submit its programme to the General

Committee for approval.

6.—The Annual Subscription shall be one shilling for the first two years after leaving School—after that it shall be two shillings—payable to any member of the Committee, before January 1st. In lieu of an Annual Subscription, a Life Subscription of twenty-five shillings may be made.

7.—These Rules shall be altered only at the Annual General Meeting, and then only by a two-thirds majority; all motions of such alteration to be in the hands of the Secretaries four days before the date of such meeting.

8.—The Annual General Meeting shall be held in September or October.

9.—The Financial Year shall end on the 31st December.
