Ladies and Gentlemen,

"THE PATSY", the charming comedy to be presented on Monday, August 28th week, had an exceedingly warm reception on its production at the Apollo Theatre, London, and its stay was a long one.

The story will appeal to Stockton audiences. Patricia (The Patsy) is the modern Cinderella of the Harrington family. Her sister, Grace (Mrs. Harrington's favourite) takes after her worldly-minded parent, and this is shown by her behaviour towards Tony Anderson.

"Patsy", who has always been overshadowed by her sister, has herself always loved Tony, but he has scarcely noticed her.

Before Mrs. Harrington is contented and Patricia made happy, there are very many funny domestic situations. Make a point of seeing "THE PATSY", you'll love her.

With compliments,

Yours sincerely,
