

12 NORTON ROAD (PREVIOUSLY 14 HARDWICK TERRACE)

INTRODUCTION

The research to create a timeline of the historic buildings of Stockton has drawn on resources such as trade directories, newspapers and census information. Whilst we have been able to construct some quite detailed pictures, there are gaps which we would like to fill. If you have any further information that could assist us, please contact Eleanor.blyth@stockton.gov.uk.

We would like to thank volunteers who have worked on the timelines.

LENG

There is nothing recorded for 14 Hardwick Terrace in the 1861 Census. Annie Elizabeth Leng, age 35 is recorded as the sole occupant at 14 Hardwick Terrace in the 1871 Census. Her occupation is recorded as proprietor of a school.

The Northern Echo - Friday 08 January 1875 records a Mrs Mudie resuming duties at the school.

TAYLDER

The 1891 and 1901 Census record Richard Taylder, Clothier at 14 Hardwick Terrace with his wife Mary. There are no children recorded. He is recorded in the 1902 Kelly's Directory at the address as a clothier. Richard Taylder originated in Cornwall. His father William was also an outfitter. Richard is referenced as being a manager at Hepworth's. Hepworth's was a national chain of men's tailoring shops, specialising in ready-made and made-to-measure suits. Founded by Joseph Hepworth in 1864 in Leeds, the company rapidly expanded with branches in major towns and cities across the country.

There was a Hepworth's in Stockton in the late 1880s so this may have been where Richard Taylder was employed before branching out on his own. Hepworth's started in Stockton at 94 High Street but moved to the corner of Dovecot Street in 1885.

GREAT SPRING FEAST.

SALE OF T. W. MUSKETT'S STOCK, OUTFITTER, LONDON-STREET, NORWICH.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25th, TILL WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9th (INCLUSIVE).

AT HEPWORTH'S,
 THE LONDON, LEEDS, & DENTON CLOTHING & HAT MANUFACTURERS, 130, HIGH-STREET, AND CORNER OF DOVECOT-STREET, STOCKTON.

HEPWORTHS have been four years in Stockton, and during that time have done an ever-increasing trade, entirely revolutionising the Corner of Dovecot-street and High-street, as well as the General Clothing Trade. Their trade to-day is just two-fold what it was during the first twelve months, and yet, till to-day, they have NEVER HAD A SALE. They manufacture every garment and article that they sell, hampers of Goods coming freshly from their own factories weekly, the same being turned over to their customers, giving no time for accumulations of OLD STOCK AND SOILED GOODS.

A SALE AT HEPWORTH'S MEANS SOMETHING IMPORTANT
 To the inhabitants of Stockton, South Stockton, and the district.

To secure the premises, in order to supply the people of Norwich with Clothing at factory prices, they purchased the stock of T. W. Musket, London-street, amounting to £ 6 9 7,

And will clear the remainder at their Stockton Branch at 60 to 70 per cent. off Musket's prices.

Space will not permit giving many quotations; moreover, quotations seldom bespeak the value of Goods; we therefore merely give an outline, and urge on intending and unhesitating purchasers to call and handle the various lots.

142 pairs Men's Useful and Fashionable Trousers, made for the Spring of 1888, will sell as under:—Musket's prices, 6/5, 7/6, 9/8, 12/6, and 15/-; our Sale prices, 3/11, 4/11, 6/11, 8/11, and 11/6. 42 MEN'S SUITS, all to clear at 13/11, are worth anybody's guinea. 73 MEN'S SUITS at 19/6 and 21/-, usual prices 27/6 and 42/6; and several items equally cheap too numerous to mention. MECHANICS' CLOTHING. All our own make and manufacture will be submitted at a general reduction of 15 per cent., or, in other words, fully 30 per cent. below general retailers' prices, comprising all kinds of Boys', Youths', and Men's Cord and Mole-skin Trousers; Serge, Duck, and Dongarue Jackets, &c., &c. A Manufacturer's Stock of SHIRTS, dozens of them to be cleared out at 9/6, 11/6, 1/6, 1/11, 2/11, and 3/11; worth 1/6 to 4/11. SPECIAL MADE-UP TO MEASURE DEPARTMENT. A lot of New Spring Cloths at marvellously attractive prices. 86 Patterns MEN'S TROUSERINGS, 8/11 and 12/6 per pair; usually 12/6 and 16/6. 95 Patterns MEN'S SUITINGS, 32/- and 42/- a suit; usually 42/- and 55/-.	94 BOYS' OVERCOATS—Capes and Chesters, our factory prices, 4/11, 5/11, 7/6, 9/6; our Sale prices, 2/11, 3/11, 4/11, 6/11. 152 MEN'S AND YOUTHS' OVERCOATS—Capes and Chesters, our factory prices, 12/6, 14/11, 17/11, 21/-, 25/-, to 42/6; our Sale prices, 8/11, 10/11, 12/11, 14/11, 16/11, to 27/6. Together with 47 Overcoats of T. W. Musket's Stock, which will be cleared out at half Musket's price. HOSIERY AND MERCERY. Mr Musket was a General Outfitter, and there is a multifarious lot of Gentlemen's Silk and Linen Handkerchiefs, Ties, Collars, Fronts; a few Ladies' Cambric Handkerchiefs and Ties; Ladies', Gentlemen's, and Children's Hosiery—all foreign to Hepworth's usual trade, and they will be sold at prices even less than the price of washing in many cases. See them. Enumeration impossible. HATS! HATS!! HATS!!! 114 dozen direct from our Denton Works, and sold to the public at factory prices, 1/11 and 2/11; worth 2/11 to 4/11. A few of last season's Goods for this Sale as under— all Musket's Stock:—Musket's prices, 1/11, 2/6, 2/11, 3/11, 4/11; our Sale prices, 1d, 3d, 9d, 1/-, 1/11, 2/11.

Richard Taylder is recorded as being in business with Henry Gawthorpe in the late 1800s. The Stockton Herald, South Durham and Cleveland Advertiser of 24th December 1892 references Taylder and Gawthorpe on Silver Street offering ‘in large quantities and newest styles, all articles necessary to the ‘mere male.’ Gawthorpe is referenced with Taylder at Hardwick Terrace with a ‘remarkable variety of clothing at exceptionally reasonable prices.’ (Northern Echo - Thursday 22 December 1892).

Henry Gawthorpe originated in Yorkshire. He was the son of a blacksmith. While his partner Richard Taylder was living at Hardwick Terrace, Henry was living at 23 Palmerston Street, recorded there in the 1891 Census.

The Daily Gazette for Middlesbrough - Thursday 15 December 1892 tells us that customers were rewarded for their purchases with photographs. The cabinet card was a style of photograph which was widely used for photographic portraiture. It consisted of a thin photograph mounted on a card. Cabinet photographs of eminent people were very popular.

In 1895 the partnership of Taylder and Gawthorpe was dissolved. The advert reveals that the premises on Hardwick Terrace was known as The Hardwick Outfit. Richard Taylder declared his intention to carry on at the premises.

Daily Gazette for Middlesbrough - Saturday 19 January 1895

There was clearly a falling out. The Stockton Herald, South Durham and Cleveland Advertiser - Saturday 30 March 1895 records court proceedings resulting from an incident where Gawthorpe is said to have verbally abused his former partner in the street.

Obscenity at Stockton.—On Thursday at Stockton Police Court Mary McIntyre was charged with using obscene language towards Mary Fair on the 24th inst. Mary Fair was also cross-summoned for a similar offence. A regular quarrel ensued in court, and both women were fined 25s, including costs, or fourteen days' imprisonment.—Henry Gawthorpe was charged with using obscene language towards Richard Taylder on the 21st inst.—Mr Malkin appeared for complainant, and said that defendant and complainant had been in partnership as clothiers.—Complainant said that on Saturday last he was out for a walk with his wife when defendant stopped him and used some very filthy language.—He was fined 40s or a month, and ordered to pay the costs or undergo a further period of 14 days.

The Taylder business continued in Stockton. The Stockton Herald, South Durham and Cleveland Advertiser - Saturday 08 August 1896 records a dramatic incident involving a loose bull.

LIVELY SCENE AT STOCKTON.
AN INFURIATED BULL DOES SERIOUS DAMAGE

On Wednesday an exciting scene was witnessed at the north end of Stockton High-street. A bull belonging to Mr Geo. Richardson, Portrack, Stockton, was being led down Church-row toward the cattle market, when it escaped. The animal was secured in the usual way by a ring in its nose, and a rope twelve yards long, and was blindfolded by a sack tied over its head. On finding itself free the animal rushed blindly down Church-row, and crossed High-street, till its horns came into contact with the plate glass window of Mr Wm. Clarke, chemist, which is opposite the end of the row. The beast's head caught the panel dividing the window down the centre, and carried it in, the result being that the window was completely smashed. On backing out the animal took its way down Norton-road, narrowly raising several shops in Hardwick-terrace, till it arrived at the shop of Mr R. Taylder, clothier, at the corner of King-street, when it walked boldly into the side window, smashing the pane completely out, and dislodging a large mirror and a heavy case immediately in its way, besides damaging some of the clothing exhibited. Its mouth was much cut, and becoming infuriated with the pain, it backed out and rushed headlong down Norton-road till it came in contact with the railings enclosing Dr. Jamieson's front garden in Victoria-terrace, which it attacked with such violence as to dislodge a large section. On its way many people had narrow escapes. On going further up the street the infuriated beast was shot to prevent further damage being done.

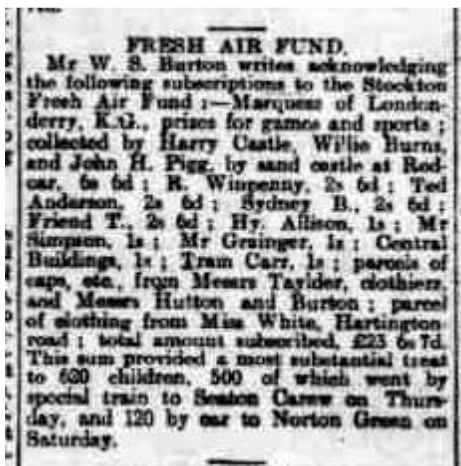

The article gives a useful description of the route taken by the beast, providing insight into the layout of the street. Mr Taylder's shop is described as being on Hardwick Terrace at the corner of King Street.

The contribution to fresh air fund by Taylder’s in 1904 supported the fund in providing an outing for local children.

Stockton Herald, South Durham and Cleveland Advertiser - Saturday 27 August 1904

There are several advertisements for Taylder’s shop. This 1902 advertisement locates Taylder’s opposite Central Buildings. Included in the range of clothing on offer are ‘football knickers, securing protection to vital parts’ !

The Tayldor's must have lived at the shop at 14 Hardwick Terrace until at least 1903 as a family announcement records the death at the address of Mary's mother (Stockton Herald, South Durham and Cleveland Advertiser - Saturday 25 July 1903). Richard and his wife Mary are found in the 1911 census at 24 Queen Street Coatham. Redcar. His occupation is still recorded as a clothier and outfitter. In 1939 Mary is recorded in the 1939 Register of England and Wales as a widow, working as a paid companion to a Hannah Emmerson in Darlington.

Meanwhile Henry Gawthorpe continued his own business. He is recorded in the 1901 and 1911 Census as a clothier, living at 2 The Square. He had premises on Church row.

G.L HARRISON

A small notice in the press gives insight into the next occupant of 14 Hardwick Terrace. G.L Harrison lodges a patent for boot heel protectors.
